WASHINGTON LETTER

Matters of General Interest
From The Capitol

The President returned to Washington this week but will remain but a short time, from Wednesday night to Sunday, when he will start on his western trip, to be present at the dedication of the McKinley monument, to inspect the Mississippi with the waterways commission, to make a number of speeches and to hunt bears and bobcats in Louisiana. Accompanying the President on his return to the White House were Mrs. Roosevelt, Quentin and Miss Ethel, who will make her debut in society at the New Year's reception. As the years go by the White House family becomes smaller during the school year. Theodore Jr. has returned to Harvard, where he was a freshman last year. Kermit is still at Groton and there Archie has started this year, this year being the first year that Archie has been away from home. Quentin will start to school immediately in Washington and Miss Ethel will also return to the Cathedral school for the first term to end with the holidays.

During the President's absence the White House has been completely repainted, all the old paint having been burnt off and three coats of dead white applied afterwards. The White House is the only stone building belonging to the government in Washington which is painted and the reason for this is not generally known. It was built originally of white sand stone but was already beginning to show the discoloration of time and weather when in 1812, it was burned by the British. The burning of the interior so discolored the walls that they could not be restored to any uniformity of color and it was decided to paint them white. The President's mansion then became known as the White House and such has been its name ever since, while each year or two it has been given a coat of fresh paint. This was the first time in years that it had been burnt off, a treatment of which it was sadly in need. While the White House has been the popular name, "The Executive Mansion" was the official name and was used on the President's stationery until Mr. Roosevelt became President. He declared that every state had an executive mansion, but that only the United States had a White House and he caused the latter name to be adopted officially and engraved on all his stationery, invitations etc, and so probably, the White House it will be until the end of time.

One of the difficult questions which the President will be called upon to solve during his brief stay in the capital will be the question of the transportation of coal for the navy's Pacific cruise. The fleet will require 133,000 tons of coal, all of which must be carried west from Hampton Roads where the Norfolk railways terminate. Of this amount, 93,000 tons is to be delivered at South American and Mexican ports and that is not affected by the coastwise laws so that it may be transported in foreign ships without question. But 40,000 tons must be delivered at San Francisco and according to the contention of the shipping interests this must be carried in American ships. Bids have been received from both American and foreign vessels and the foreign bids are so much lower than the cost if they are employed for the transportation of the 40,000 tons will be about $280,000, while if American vessels are used the cost will be not less than $480,000. The navy department believes that under a law passed last session it has the right to use foreign vessels but the shipping lawyers maintain that it has not, and many Senators and Representatives have written to Washington stating their opinion that last year's law gave no such right. The Navy Department is in a quandary and it is expected that Secretary McCall will submit the question to the President for final decision.

The President will not talk politics for publication but he has told several of his friends that he is confident the New York delegation to the next Republican convention will be instructed for Secretary Taft and he is convinced that Mr. Taft will be nominated on the first ballot. The President has also expressed the view that Governor Hughes will also be re-nominated and reelected Governor of New York.

The President's view regarding the political future seems to agree with the results discovered by a western newspaper, which has been conducting a postal card canvass of prominent Republicans all over the country, which gave Taft a total vote of 2,512 votes, the other candidates being Roosevelt with 689 votes, Hughes with 680, Cannon with 290, Fairbanks with 281, Knox with 200, La Follette with 235, Root with 149, Foraker with 74 and Cortelyou with 42. This ballot which was very carefully conducted is regarded as very significant and as indicating pretty accurately the sentiment of the Republicans throughout the country. Senator Wm. Alden Smith, who has just come to Washington from Michigan, says that Taft will have the Michigan delegation if the Republicans of that State are once convinced that Roosevelt will not run again.

The Secretary of State, Mrs. Root and Miss Root left Washington for Mexico a few hours before the President returned. There has been some attempt in the sensational newspapers to make it appear that there was something peculiar in the fact that Mr. Root did not wait to greet his chief, but such is not the case. The Secretary visited the President at Oyster Bay just before coming to Washington and nothing new has occurred to necessitate his awaiting the return of the President to Washington.

You will miss a musical treat if you do not visit our store during the Street Fair or any other time.

For Lung Troubles

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. And it certainly strengthens weak throats and weak lungs. There can be no mistake about this. You know it is true. And your own doctor will say so.

"My little boy had a terrible cough. I tried everything I could hear of but in vain until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first night he was better, and he steadily improved until he was perfectly well."—Mrs. B. J. STANLEY, ALTON, ILL.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED.

Some Montgomery City People Have Learned to get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers. You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

S. B. Browning, living at 423 N. Jefferson St., Mexico, Mo., says: "I had used Doan's Kidney Pills before. I never got any remedy for the kidneys to equal them and I have tried nearly all. When my back would be so painful that it was agony to stand at the chair, I would take Doan's Kidney Pills and it would all disappear. If my kidneys caused any urinary difficulty, I would take Doan's Kidney Pills and I could sleep all night without rising. My head no longer ached and the stiffness and soreness in the back of my neck left me. Being a barber, my occupation is very hard on my back and I do not know how I could stand it without Doan's Kidney Pills."

Plenty more proof like this from Montgomery people. Call at Crump & Kidwell's drug store and ask what customers report.

Dave Ball to Enter Gubernatorial Race.

Dave Ball of Pike county stated positively here Saturday that he had decided to enter the race for governor. He talked about his platform, but said he was "up in the air" as to who his Democratic opponent would be. He is, however, pretty certain that Congressman Champ Clark will not be a candidate for governor, as reported, but that the Ninth District member will be a candidate for congress to succeed himself, in hopes that the next House will be Democratic, and he will be its speaker. Mr. Ball said he did not speak with authority in regard to Clark. He said he expected to see Folk and Stone fight it out in the State Primary for the office of United States Senator.

Mr. Ball was asked regarding the platform he would make the race for Governor on. He replied: "Law enforcement, opposition to trusts and corporations." "What about the temperance question now attracting wide attention?" "Missouri is evidently opposed to the liquor traffic, but it is not a political question, as I view it."

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Crump & Kidwell, druggists. 25c.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Monday, October 7 at 2:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Mattie A. Faulconer. All members are requested to be present and hear report of the state convention held in Sedalia Sept. 17-20. Each one present will receive a souvenir of the state convention. Do not fail to be on time.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now 83 years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for 2 years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters effect the aged, and the same happy results follow all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Crump & Kidwell, druggists. 50c.

County Teacher's Association.

Montgomery County Teacher's Association held here in the court house Thursday and Friday was a decided success. It was well attended and presided over by County Superintendent Davis. State Superintendent Howard A. Gass addressed the association and said "County supervision of schools should be paramount issue in Missouri." Probably the event of the association was the address by Walter Williams of Columbia Friday evening.
